Full Potential Adventures, Inc. is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization that proudly serves the differently-abled and their families. Our mission is to provide opportunities for physically and mentally impaired individuals of all ages as well as at-risk youth to participate in outdoor recreational activities. Activities include, but are not limited to alpine skiing, boating (both motor and sailing), fishing, hunting, and community service projects with other activities to be added in the future. These activities are therapeutic physically, emotionally, and socially. We accept and appreciate donations of all types. All donations are tax deductible.
